The Royalist Army at Doncaster
19 August 1645

Horse:

The Lifeguard of Horse commanded by Lord Bernard Stuart, Earl of Lichfield
   The King's Troop, commanded by Lord Bernard Stuart, Earl of Lichfield
   The Queen's Troop, commanded by Sir Edward Brett, Regimental Major
   The Earl of Lichfield's Troop, commanded by Lt Colonel Gordon
   Sir Thomas Glemham's troop, commanded by Sir Henry Stradling

General Charles Gerard's Horse
   NOTE: This was actually a Brigade of Horse composed of regiments of Gerard's Army and including:
   Charles Gerard's Lifeguard of Horse
   Charles Gerard's Regiment of Horse
   Colonel Roger Whitley's Regiment of Horse, commanded by Lt Col. Bambrigg?

Sir Marmaduke Langdale's Brigade
   NOTE: The remnants of 'The Northern Horse' which had fought at Naseby.

Sir William Vaughan's Brigade
   The Queen's Regiment of Horse
   Prince Maurice's Regiment of Horse
   Sir William Vaughan's Regiment of Horse
   Colonel Samuel Sandy's Regiment of Horse

Foot:

Colonel John Freschville's Regiment of Foot
   ex-Garrison of Welbeck House and incorporating the remnants of Thomas Wheatley's Regiment of Foot

Colonel Harvey Bagot's Regiment of Foot part only - ex-Garrison of Lichfield

British Library Harleian Ms 911